

CLEANING-UP DEW LINE
SITES IN NUNAVUT:
THE INUIT PERSPECTIVE
AT CAM-F

Kailapi Alorut,
Jean-Pierre Pelletier
and Michel Pouliot

CLEANING-UP DEW LINE SITES IN NUNAVUT: The Inuit Perspective at CAM-F (Kinguraq)

- Location of Iglulik (Igloodik)
- Presentation of Iglulik and Sanirajaq (Hall Beach)
- Use of the Kinguraq area
- CAM-F Cleanup Project Summary
 - Mobilization to the Site
 - On-Site Activities
- Project Local Requirements
 - Regional Pressure
 - Inuit Content
 - Local Benefits

Site Location and History

Iglulik (or Igloolik)

- Igloolik means "there is an igloo here"
- First Settlement: 4,000 years
- Roman Catholic Mission and RCMP detachment in the 1930s

- Over 1,500 people
- Igloolik Isuma Productions Inc.
- Artcirq

Sanirajak (or Hall Beach)

- Sanirajak, means "one that is along the coast"
- Created with the DEW Line Radar System

- Hall Beach is NWS site
- Population is approximately 600 people

Site Location and History

- CAM-F is one of the 13 DEW Line Radar Stations located within the Qikiqtaaluk Region of Nunavut
- One of the 4 landlocked Stations (FOX-3, FOX-B and CAM-D are the other three)

Location of Kingurak (Sarcpa Lake)

Use of the Kingurak Area

CAM-F Cleanup: Before and After

Pictures: UMA/AECOM

CLEANING-UP DEW LINE SITES IN NUNAVUT: The Inuit Perspective at CAM-F (Kinguraq)

Mobilization: Sealift and CAT-Train Route

Total CAT-Train Distance: Hall Beach – CAM-F: 125 km

The Construction Camp

Debris Collection

Barrel Management

Debris in and around Sarcpa Lake

Building Demolition

Non-Hazardous Waste Landfill

Secured Soil Disposal Facility

Local Challenges: Work Opportunities (2006 – 2007)

Meeting the Target: Local Benefits

- Higher wages not the solution
- Started from bottom
- Employment:
 - 110 workers from Hall Beach and Igloolik
- Training Provided:
 - Workplace Hazardous Material Information System
 - Inuit Supervisor course
 - HAZWOPER
 - Transportation of Dangerous Goods
 - Heavy Equipment Operation and Maintenance
 - Standard First Aid and CPR
 - Camp Cooking
- Contracts:
 - 2/3 of the project cost injected in Northern Economy

Aknowledgement

CLEANING-UP DEW LINE
SITES IN NUNAVUT:
THE INUIT PERSPECTIVE
AT CAM-F

Kailapi Alorut,
Jean-Pierre Pelletier
and Michel Pouliot

