

AER: Overview of AER Record of Site Condition (RoSC)

Sara Blacklaws, Adrian Kerry and Matthew Stewart, Alberta Energy Regulator

Overview of AER Record of Site Condition (RoSC) and how structured data is used in regulatory oversight.

Sara Blacklaws

Sara Blacklaws is a Remediation and Contamination Management Sr. Specialist with Alberta Energy Regulator in the Regulatory Applications branch. She is a Professional Agrologist responsible for providing technical support and subject matter expertise on contamination-related submissions and evaluating legislative compliance. Sara and has over a decade of experience with environmental site assessments, contamination management and remediation from consulting in upstream and downstream sectors and from working as a regulator.

Adrian Kerry, Remediation and Contamination Management Sr. Specialist, Alberta Energy Regulator

Adrian Kerry works in the Regulatory Applications Branch at the Alberta Energy Regulator. He is a Professional Agrologist with a Master of Science Degree in Environmental Diagnostics. Adrian has been working in the field of contaminated site management for 25 years, the last 17 focusing on the energy industry in Western Canada.

Matthew Stewart

Matthew Stewart is Remediation and Contamination Management Sr. Specialist with Alberta Energy Regulator. Matthew Stewart has been working at the Alberta Energy Regulator for 8 years in various roles, including as a contaminant hydrogeologist supporting applications, a project manager, and is currently a senior specialist on the Remediation and Contamination Management team. Most recently, Matthew has been the technical lead for the OneStop delivery of the Record of Site Condition. He has a Master of Science Degree in Geoenvironmental Engineering and is a member of the Association of Professional Engineers Geoscientists of Alberta.