

Claudia Simonato is a Senior Environmental Specialist at Public Services and Procurement Canada (PSPC) delivering site assessment and remediation projects in the western and northern regions of Canada on behalf of other government departments. Claudia holds a degree in Environmental Earth Sciences and has more than 19 years of experience, beginning her career in the private sector, and later as Contaminated Sites officer with Environment and Climate Change Canada and Environmental Specialist with PSPC in Ontario.